Lord, for the many blessings our Easter together has given us.

For hearts filled with generosity, love, humility and prayer.

For recognition that everything we do is for Your Glory Lord.

So much for all the cards and gifts given to me this Easter; and for the sentiment contained within them. Thank you also for the Easter offering which helps so very much.

In the Orchard filled with Lavender runs a stream on which floats the Waterman, he has no need for concern. If there were something to forgive, it is through the grace of God that the forgiving heart would seek nothing other.
